Print Resources

Web Resources

Center on the Developing Child, Harvard University
Includes links to a series of white papers on critical topics in child development: emotional development in the context of relationships, brain development, the impact of toxic stress, maternal depression, neglect and resilience.
http://developingchild.harvard.edu/resources/reports_and_working_papers/working_papers/wp2/

Conscious Discipline
A list of frequently asked questions about challenging behavior and discipline are provided in this section of the website. Useful for administrators, teachers, and families alike!

Early Childhood Mental Health Consultation (ECMHC)
Among their resources for families, the site includes relaxation resources, social and emotional skill building tips for parents of infants, toddlers, and preschoolers, and more!
http://ecmhc.org/materials_families.html

FRIENDS: National Center for Community-Based Child Abuse Prevention (CBCAP)
Information about the power of protective factors in families to lower rates of child abuse and neglect and which of these are the most important. The site offers links to important resources, including the Annual Community Resource Guide, Strengthening Families, Search Institute Developmental Assets, CDC information on risk and protective factors, Institute of Medicine Report, and FRIENDS Protective Factors Survey.
http://friendsnrc.org/cbcap-priority-areas/protective-factors

New South Wales Department of Community Services
Research to Practice Notes on Risk, Protection and Resilience in Children and Families explores these factors in four domains: child, family, school and community. Includes links between factors and outcomes, as well as implications for policy and practice.

Too Small to Fail
A new toolkit of resources, Talk, Read, Sing Together, Every Day! provides tip sheets in both English and Spanish for families, preschool teachers, and infant/toddler teachers and caregivers that can be used to help enrich children's early language experiences beginning from birth.
http://toosmall.org/community/resources

Zero to Three Baby Policy Blog
Includes a case study on preschool expulsions through the eyes of a child. In the second scenario, the teacher uses calming and validating strategies to support the needs of the child and begin to build their relationship.
http://zerotothreepolicy.tumblr.com/